

God's Promises

Scripture Memory Series

Week 15

"If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin."

1 John 1:6, 7

"If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

1 John 1:8, 9

Sonjia Hunt Ministries PO Box 21 Cleveland, TN 37364-0021 www.sonjahuntministries.com

*All Scriptures are from the New King James Version unless otherwise indicated.
(c) 1982 by Thomas Nelson, Inc. Used by permission. All rights reserved.*

Your Scripture memory verses for this week are on the front.

God Is Worthy of Praise

"Do as you have said . . . that Your name may be magnified forever" (1 Chronicles 17:23-24).

God never fails to keep His promises--just another reason He is worthy of our praise. A person of integrity and good character keeps their promises; and God, above all others, "is righteous in all His ways" (Psalm 145:17). In other words, God does right in everything He does. And He keeps every promise.

With God's help we too can be promise keepers. As Christians we are called to be like Jesus. If we have failed in the past to keep our promises, each new day brings opportunity for a fresh start. If we have made foolish promises, we should repent. If we've truly been hindered from keeping a promise, we should explain and move forward.

SONJIA HUNT MINISTRIES PO Box 21 CLEVELAND, TN 37364-0021