Beyond "Us"

While you and I certainly need things like health, provision, protection, guidance, hope, love, joy, peace and many other things God has promised us, there are needs around us, on a larger scale. One example is healing for our nation; and there is a promise we can claim: "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and heal their land" (2 Chronicles 7:14).

If we (God's people) do our part to fulfill the conditions of this promise, then God will do His part. He wants to hear. . . forgive . . . and heal our land. Let us expand our prayers and focus to a broader perspective than only our personal or family needs. God wants to heal the wounds and divisions of nations as well. We can be instrumental in God's work world-wide.
